Estimate: £30,000-50,000

LONDON - 22 JULY 2020 – Phillips is pleased to announce the second edition of HEATWAVE, a cross category online sale on Phillips.com from 22 to 30 July 2020. HEATWAVE will feature 75 lots ranging from 1930 through to the present day and highlighting works from a number of the collecting categories Phillips is proud to represent, including Photographs, Design, Editions, and 20th Century and Contemporary Art. Highlights include works from established and emerging artists such as Amoako Bofo, Lisa Brice, Nina Chanel Abney, Julie Curtiss, Ignazio Gardella, Thomas Struth, Nicolas Party, and Gerhard Richter.

Charlotte Gibbs, Associate Specialist, Head of Online Sales, London, said “This summer we are delighted to present the second edition of HEATWAVE. We launched HEATWAVE in July 2019 and we were thrilled with the enthusiasm with which the sale was greeted by established and emerging collectors alike. The present edition of HEATWAVE once more includes a broad spectrum of works, themes and price points. The selection on offer reflects our ability to find exciting and sought after cross category works and bring them together in a way that unites themes, styles and current collecting trends in one accessible digital space. We believe there is something in this sale for every collector, whether they are looking to add to an established collection or hoping to start one.”
